

Hi! My name is Cassie Day.

I live in Brookings, but grew up in Winner. I received a BS in Human Development and Family Relations from SDSU. I worked for the Brookings School District for two years supporting children with behavior education plans. I also work for Great After School Place (G.A.P) supporting children. Prior to this, I worked for Community Connections in Winner, another Community Support Provider.

