Our goal is to be part of the emotional healing of children affected by illness and disease, by providing them with a happy and safe place to heal. We work closely with the child and family to design and redecorate a personalized bedroom or space within the family's home. The family will fill this space with items that are meaningful to the child and in a style they choose; this can include items that can be brought to hospitals or treatment facilities if needed. Our goal is to provide “My Happy Place” for each child involved.
